

Environment
Institute of Australia and
New Zealand

Environmental Policy to Practice:

Preparing for a low-emissions future

EIANZ Annual Symposium

Friday 14 September | Christchurch, New Zealand

8:00am	REGISTRATION OPENS
8:45am	Mihi whakatau from Ngāi Tūāhuriri and welcome from EIANZ
9:00am	KEYNOTE SPEAKER Amelia Sharman , Productivity Commission Update on the Commission's Final Report
9:45am	KEYNOTE SPEAKER Craig Salmon , Ministry for the Environment Update on Government policy
10:30am	MORNING TEA Sponsored by Enviro-Mark Solutions
11:00am	Stewart McKenzie , Enviro-Mark Solutions Inspiring business actions for managing carbon emissions
11:45am	Victoria Metcalf , OPMCS Communicating the science of low emissions
12:30pm	LUNCH
1:15pm - 3:45pm	CONCURRENT SESSIONS
	STREAM 1	STREAM 2
1:15pm	STUDENT PRESENTATION Designing sustainable low-emissions practices Richard Moreham	STUDENT PRESENTATION Barriers to private sector involvement Tsani Rakhmah
1:30pm	Christchurch Electric Vehicle Initiatives Kevin Crutchley , Christchurch City Council	Carbon financing indigenous reforestation at scale Sean Weaver , Ekos
2:15pm	Carbon emissions work with Ngāi Tahu Chris Brankin , Te Runānga o Ngāi Tahu	Addressing emissions in the dairy industry Nick Tait , Dairy NZ
3:00pm	Engaging and acting with a coastal community Rachel Puentener & Sylvia Smyth , The How Team, Christchurch	Emissions management in the construction industry Allanah Kidd , Beca
3:45pm	AFTERNOON TEA
4:00pm	PLENARY PANEL DISCUSSION Amelia Sharman , Craig Salmon A facilitated discussion focusing on how environmental professionals can prepare for the future
5:00pm	Summary and close
5:15pm	Travel to Antarctic Centre (walk or shuttlebus)
5:30pm - 8:00pm	NETWORKING DRINKS ANTARCTIC CENTRE EXPERIENCE

Thanks to our sponsors

