AUSTRALASIAN JOURNAL OF ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

The Australasian Journal of Environmental Management (AJEM) is the journal of the Environment Institute of Australia and New Zealand (EIANZ).

AJEM addresses policy and practice in resource and environmental management.

The EIANZ Ecology Special Interest Section aims to develop and promote knowledge about ecology, improve professional practice and recognition of ecological practitioners.

AJEM is seeking to produce a special issue focused on ecology for publication in late 2020.
