

References and Resources

Delivering Environmental Practice and Natural Disaster Resilience

A selection of reference sites to get started, focusing on governance and organisational matters.

International

<https://www.undrr.org/> United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction

<https://www.undrr.org/implementing-sendai-framework/sf-and-sdgs> The Sendai Framework and Sustainable Development Goals

<https://www.preventionweb.net/english/> The UNDRR Knowledge Hub for disaster risk reduction

<https://www.unisdr.org/conference/2020/apmcdrr/home>

https://www.preventionweb.net/files/56219\_ulaanbaatardeclarationfinal.pdf Asian Ministerial Conference on Disaster Risk Reduction - Preventing Disaster Risk: Protecting Sustainable Development

https://www.linkedin.com/posts/undrr\_nations-are-learning-lessons-from-each-other-activity-6741893666983477248-K8qE/ Follow UNDRR on LinkedIn

<https://www.unenvironment.org/news-and-stories/press-release/green-infrastructure-natures-best-defence-against-disasters> - promoting green infrastructure

https://www.fema.gov/sites/default/files/2020-09/fema\_ecosystem-service\_benefits\_policy\_september-2020.pdf - using natural assets for reducing disaster risk

Australia

<https://www.aidr.org.au/about-aidr/> Australian Institute for Disaster resilience – knowledge and learning to support a disaster resilient Australia

<https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/about-us/our-portfolios/emergency-management/emergency-response-plans> Includes a suite of plans to respond to, and recover from, natural and human-caused emergencies (includes NATCATDISPALN)

<https://naturaldisaster.royalcommission.gov.au/> Royal Commission into National Natural Disaster Arrangements

<https://www.pm.gov.au/media/reforms-national-natural-disaster-arrangements> Australian Government response to the Royal Commission into National Natural Disaster Arrangements including a standing national resilience and recovery agency

<https://www.homeaffairs.gov.au/emergency/files/national-disaster-risk-reduction-framework.pdf> National Disaster Risk Reduction Framework

*Natural assets for flood and cyclone resilience - Synthesis of scientific evidence on the role of natural assets to reduce the human impacts of floods and cyclones* (DEHP, 2012) & *Natural assets for flood and cyclone resilience Review of planning mechanisms used worldwide for mitigation of natural disasters using a natural assets approach* (DEHP, 2012) Using natural assets for risk reduction.

New Zealand

<https://www.govt.nz/organisations/national-emergency-management-agency/> to create an emergency management system that reduces the impact of emergencies

<https://www.civildefence.govt.nz/cdem-sector/plans-and-strategies/national-disaster-resilience-strategy/> includes a common agenda for resilience that individual organisations, agencies, and groups can align for collective impact