

WELCOMING OUR NEW FELLOWS

The EIANZ Board is pleased to announce the appointment of three new Fellows. The status of Fellow is recognition of the leading role that a member has played in the environment profession. It is a well-deserved acknowledgement of their professional standing and commitment to ethical practice over an extended period. Congratulations to these worthy recipients!

CLIVE COOK
FEIANZ CEnvP

Clive has forty years' experience in the environmental profession. He started as a ranger in Tasmania, followed by New Zealand and then Kakadu National Park. Clive has also held executive leadership roles in the Great Barrier Reef Marine Park Authority and the Queensland National Parks and Wildlife Service.

Following his distinguished executive leadership career, Clive continued to contribute to the profession by coordinating the Protected Area Management Course of study offered by the School of Earth and Environmental Sciences at the University of Queensland. Clive also provided assistance to the United Nations, Food and Agriculture Organisation in Fiji, contributing to a program designed for Biodiversity Conservation and Protected Area Management practitioners.

Clive holds a degree in Urban and Regional Planning and majored in natural resource management. Clive is a Certified Environmental Practitioner (CEnvP), a Member of the EIANZ and also a member of the IUCN and the WCPA.

Clive currently runs his own consultancy business and is a Justice of the Peace (Qualified). He is a member of the Royal Historical Society of Queensland and the Queensland Maritime Museum. Clive also serves on the Skyrail Rainforest Foundation Board, sits on the Executive Council of the Protected Areas Learning & Research Collaboration and is Chair of the Protected Areas Practitioners Committee.

Clive's ongoing interest is in the recognition, development and promotion of excellence in governance and management of protected areas and biodiversity conservation outcomes and in the recognition, development and promotion of excellence in environmental management across the sector. Clive is a worthy recipient of an EIANZ Fellowship.

WELCOMING OUR NEW FELLOWS

JACK KROHN
FEIANZ

Jack Krohn is a renowned and respected member of the impact assessment practice community in Victoria and internationally. Jack has over 30 years' experience in impact assessment in the Victorian Government, and during this time has maintained his membership in the EIANZ and IAIA.

Jack has contributed to the EIANZ through his role as Deputy Chair of the Impact Assessment Special Interest Section, has acted as a session chair, and provided presentations at several IAIA conferences in both Australia and overseas. Jack is a practitioner whose opinions are sought and respected by the industry, proponents, his peers and mentees. Jack is a worthy recipient of an EIANZ Fellowship.

DARREN MURPHY
FEIANZ CEnvP

Darren Murphy has demonstrated sustained leadership and influence within the environmental, mine closure and land reclamation profession. Through his expertise, he built a leading practice for Jacobs (Australia) Group Pty Ltd (formerly SKM) and is now the Principal Closure Scientist at Golder Associates Pty Ltd.

Darren has project managed and directed numerous multi-disciplinary studies for major clients which has included conceptual, prefeasibility and feasibility level studies, as well as provision of strategic advice to both industry and government clients. While working mostly within Australia, Darren has also managed or supported closure studies in South America, North America and Asia.

Darren is an active contributor to the EIANZ - assisting in sponsorship, making presentations and participating in various events. He is also a member of the CEnvP Special Environmental Advisory Committee for Land Rehabilitation Certification.

Darren is the EIANZ representative on the Standards Australia Mirror Committee for the development of mine closure and reclamation standards. Darren was also the International Project Leader for the development of ISO20305 Mine Closure and Reclamation Vocabulary that has recently been published. Darren is a worthy recipient of an EIANZ Fellowship.
